ASAC 2013 CONFERENCE

REDEFINING MANAGEMENT EDUCATION

THE BISSETT SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
WELCOMES YOU TO CALGARY!

The 41st annual Administrative Sciences Association of Canada (ASAC) Conference will be held on June 8th to 11th, 2013 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in vibrant downtown Calgary.

Hosted by the Bissett School of Business at Mount Royal University, the theme for the 2013 conference is Redefining Management Education.

ASAC's annual conference attracts hundreds of business researchers from across Canada and numerous other countries around the world. Competitive papers and symposia are presented in nineteen divisions and a case track. The conference also includes best paper awards, social functions to facilitate networking amongst delegates, and complimentary breakfasts and lunches.

This year's meeting offers an exciting program of keynote speakers and round table discussions, as well as a doctoral consortium, professional development workshops, and paper sections and symposia focused on the administrative sciences.

We invite you to join a contingent of academic attendees over 600-strong, representing the major Canadian and international universities.

We hope to see you in Calgary in June!

Calgary - The Heart of the New West
Calgary is a cosmopolitan city, characterized by its entrepreneurial spirit, a can-do attitude, and of course, real-life cowboys and cowgirls. June in Calgary will offer you a vibrant cultural city, with the majestic Canadian Rockies only one hour away by car.

Tour the New $550 Million Tower at the Foothills Hospital
Join the Health Care Management Division for a guided tour of the new McCaig Tower on June 10th. This $550 million acute care facility on the banks of the Glenmore Reservoir opened in 2010.

Discover Banff & The Canadian Rockies
Only an hour's drive west of the city is one of the country's greatest marvels - Banff National Park. Be sure to plan in some extra time!
